IEEE XPLORE TRAINING SESSION FOR STUDENTS OF SFIT ON JANUARY 30, 2021

IEEE Publications @ St. Francis Institute of Technology

230 articles published

Authors with most publications-

- Dr. Deepak Jayaswal (23)
- Dr. Uday Khot (21)
- Prof. Santosh Chapaneri (21)

Author Information Pages

Enhanced and disambiguated author affiliation data now provides a consolidated list of an author's publications available in IEEE Xplore, making it simple to track the evolution of an author's research and view their affiliations and frequent collaborators.

- Launched Dec. 2018 as beta version with 3 million authors.
- Based on information already being provided by authors.
- Accessible by clicking on author names in articles, FAQs, & search results.
- Help authors promote their published works in IEEE Xplore.
- Publicly available (and indexable) summary of research activities.

VIRTUAL IEEE AUTHORSHIP WORKSHOP FOR T.E. AND B.E. STUDENTS ON 30th MARCH 2021

The screenshot shows a virtual meeting interface. The main content is a slide titled "Publish IEEE journal or IEEE conference?". The slide compares "IEEE Journals" (PRO) and "IEEE Conferences" (CON). The PRO section states that IEEE journals are cited 3 times more often in patent applications than other leading publisher's journals, but a high percentage of articles submitted to any professional publication are rejected. The CON section states that IEEE Conference proceedings are recognized worldwide as the most vital collection of consolidated published articles in EE, computer science, and related fields, but per IEEE Policy, if you do not present your article at a conference, it may be suppressed in IEEE Xplore and not indexed in other databases. The slide also features the IEEE logo. On the right side of the meeting window, there is a "Participants" list showing several attendees, including Dhankumar Patanashetti (Host), Anand Patil, chinmayeebange, and Chinmayee Bhanghe. A search bar is visible above the list.
